A NOTE FROM YOUR EDITORS

Hello there again to all of our faithful readers. It is a pleasure to bring you our newsletter again. It is great to see all of the ads showing up in our mail and would like to thank all of those who sent in something for this newsletter. It is also great to see our members share in this wonderful association which we all belong to. Since Christmas is now over and the New Year has begun, Marsha and I would like to wish you all a wonderful and prosperous new year. As we are now rolling into the month of February, All of us here would like to see as many of our members whether it's Calgary or Edmonton locations, show up to the get-togethers and meet the other members. Both of us have met very many of our members as well as Calgary's and would like to say that we are very fortunate to meet them and to enjoy their company. We have never met so many wonderful and friendly people as the members in Illusions.

We both hope that you all had a good Christmas and a happy New Years. Both of us completely enjoyed the holidays and look forward to the new year. As Illusions grows in size, it is a warm gesture from both Marsha and I to welcome all of our new members to our association. Whether it's NORTH or SOUTH, we are all one big and growing family. We hope that you enjoy and find friendship with the other members as well as the support we all share with each other. Now let's get on with the newsletter. Read on fellow members!

ILLUSIONS FASHION SHOW !!!

Introducing . . .

Lingerie by Barbie

Wonderful fashions along with music. Our members which have had clothing made by Barbie will be modelling their wares.

Lot's of enjoyment and fun!

ATTENTION MODELS: Make sure that whatever Barbie has made you will be part of your wardrobe when you attend the meeting!

*For more information regarding this event, please contact
ILLUSIONS EDMONTON at 486-9661*

Hints & Tips

1 Wig care!! When combing out your wigs have a bottle of water handy (old windix bottle) Any time that static or gets hard to comb spray a little water to lubricate the wig to carefully preserve the wig and stop hair pull out

2 When washing the wig be sure to squeeze the soap into the wig not rub it in. And when rinsing the wig let the water drain well before lifting to reduce damage to the wig when hanging dry.

If you have any tips please write us we need them Marsha

SALON 512 REPORT

Back in October, Illusions Calgary was introduced to an introductory session of the upcoming make-over display by Brian of Salon 512. Barbie and her mystery helper put on quite a serious display (yuk-yuk).

In November, Bryon of Salon 512 started out re-working over darling Bree's face using many good tips and suggestions on how to fix problems. The question and answer paid off after Bree jumping, but for all problems answers were eventually found.

In January, the handsome session went off with style. Most of our members showed up barefaced and ready. Bryon was hopping from person to person giving advice and suggestions for problems some of our members may have had.

A few members which missed the November meeting received extra attention for that perfect look they were after. Karen of Salon 512 gave a lecture on wig care and cleaning. All that attended they all had a great time and learned a lot. Thanks to Bryon and Karen of Salon 512. Great Work!!!

DEAR MONA . . .

I have what I believe a valid concern. As Illusions grows in numbers, as we all know it will, more and more of the membership will have to desire to travel back and forth to attend each other's socials. Personally, I would love to visit you in Edmonton, but like many others, I am quite sure, the expense of hotel accomodation , even for the one evening, is beyond reach after initial travelling costs.

In consideration of membership and new friendships, has anyone ever come forward and opened their home to visiting members? This age-old practice is used in many clubs and organizations, and in the spirit of our club, I would gladly welcome a member in to my humble abode for the evening of our social.

I would appreciate any feedback and your opinion!

Thanks, Joline

This is actually quite a reasonable question to ask regarding accomodations to our travelling members. This idea is greatly used by other clubs but the main thing to remember is that not all members would be able to consider this idea (as in putting it to use). Personally, I find this a great idea and if it were up to myself, I would definitely accept one of our members to accomodation for that particular social as would many more of our members. The main thing I would recommend is to phone at least a week in advance to make sure that such arrangements will be acceptable at the time of the gathering.

If we could get some response to this question from Joline, I will be happy to publish the outcome in the magazine for the next issue.

Friendship is an absolute necessity.

May all of you believe in this and with our membership growing, remember that friends are not weighed by the handful but by what they can appreciate in having another friend to add to

Is facial hair growth retarded and/or arrested after repeated treatment?

Facial hair growth mainly depends on the age and the amount of hair present on that person when he/she begins the hormonal treatment. If started early, it will limit the amount of hair growth, but the older you are, the better it is to try waxing or electrolysis. It will eventually help slow down the growth of the hair on the patient in time. As usual, it is important to search for an understanding doctor and consult him of this particular nature. If more information is necessary, readers can go back to the issue previous to this one. The article is titled, WHAT IS A TRANSSEXUAL???

SEWING BY STELLA

Bring in a pattern or a picture, and let's see what happens! Very comfortable and relaxed atmosphere. Done in her home and very reasonable.

Let's hear from anyone interested!

Phone during the hours above at 962-5866 and just ask for Stella.

ARTICLE

Here's a great and informative article sent in by Calgary's member Marcia. Many thanks going out to her for sending it in to us. We hope that you enjoy it as much as we did.

The exciting book, SON OF THE MORNING STAR, is written by E. S. Connell. It deals with a spectacular true story of General George Armstrong Cluster, his 7th U.S. Cavalry and the colourful characters who contribute to his life, his times and his demise at the Little Big Horn.

In the book, there is an interesting reference to a Mrs. Nash. Sometime during the 1800's, Mrs. Nash who is described as being a "rather peculiar looking woman" joined the U.S. 7th as a washer woman. The very competent laundress, seamstress, nurse, baker of delicious pies and popular mid-wife even married two of Custer's troopers.

The first seldom smiled again after his wedding night. He apparently deserted a few days before his term of enlistment expired. Then a Private Noonan became the next groom. This union was a happy one until Mrs. Nash sickened and passed away while her husband was away on a scouting mission. Her last request was that she be buried without the usual cleaning and dressing.

When the request was ignored, much to everyone's surprise, certain "protruding evidence" was found. She was not a female.

Unfortunately, this revelation proved to be too much for everyone. Upon his return, her husband was rejected and abandoned by his fellows. Despite his protests to the contrary, that his wife was female, Private Noonan fell into a depression and was found dead as a result of himself committing suicide.

This is a great story which signifies that cross-dressing has been around for quite a long time. I believe that it will be continuing on for an even longer time from today and into the future. It will be wonderful when society accepts it totally and as a whole.

Thanks again to Calgary's member Marcia for her interesting contribution to our magazine. Much appreciated dear!
